

I wholeheartly agree with RM-10783. All requirements for Morse Code should be dropped immediately. This is an antiquated skill that is keeping a lot of very good ham operators from advancing. This also limits the ability of handicapped operators. The code requirement should be dropped immediately and all Technician and above should be granted HF privilages.